Information and Terms for the granting of License Certificate for the ride of your Life

The minimum age for any person riding in a Jet Sprint Boat is 14 years. (proof of age may be requested the event prior to your ride). On the day of your ride you must present yourself to Judy Ellison in the pits area (0418 931 106) of the WCSJC (Lot 101 St Albans Road Baldivis) no later than 5:00pm on the designated event day so ride times can be scheduled in advance of the meeting start.

All passengers should wear suitable clothing, closed shoes, jeans or similar and long sleeve top/shirt. It is most unlikely you will get wet during the ride, however to ensure you protection the club will provide you with suitable safety overalls, helmet and other safety equipment for you to wear during the ride.

Passengers must NOT consume any alcohol prior to the ride and it is recommended that no major meal be consumed within 1 hour of the scheduled ride. Alcohol must not be carried into the pit area and consumption of alcohol or the taking of illicit substances prior to the ride will result in cancellation of the ride without refund. The club at its discretion, reserves the right to request prospective riders to agree to a breathalyser or other such control tests in the event that consumption of prohibited substances is suspected. Failure of the test or refusal to participate will result in cancellation of the ride without refund. Smoking in or near the pit area is not permitted.

The "G" Forces within the boat during the ride are intense and it could be difficult to retain grip on any item you may be carrying, so for passenger and driver safety you will not be permitted to carry mobile phones, cameras, radios or any other devices that is deemed to be a possible projectile during the ride. These requirements are designed to enhance your enjoyment and your safety during the ride so please do not ask for exemptions to this condition.

If you are applying for a ride as a gift, then it is also a requirement that the recipient agrees to abide by the conditions you have signed for on their behalf.

By signing this form you and the recipient of the ride hereby accept the terms and conditions of this license and the rules of the West Coast Jet Sprint Club.

I have read and understood the terms and conditions.
